2 Structure

2.1 Composition
The GSDC shall consist of a Chairperson, appointed by the APC Executive Board from among the nominations received from the APC membership, one Vice-Chairperson and a maximum of five (5) members as determined in article 3 of this by-law.

2.2 Reporting
Written reports/minutes of all GSDC meetings shall be produced for distribution to the APC Executive Board and GSDC members; all reports shall be archived at the APC headquarters. The Chairperson of the GSDC shall approve the reports/minutes prior to distribution.

The APC CEO shall ensure that recommendations to the APC Executive Board resulting from GSDC meetings are included on the agenda of the APC Executive Board meetings and that the subsequent decisions from the APC Executive Board are communicated to the members of the GSDC.

The Chairperson of the GSDC may be invited to attend the meetings of the APC Executive Board and/or may be invited to give a verbal report at the meeting of the APC Executive Board on a specific topic.

A report on the activities of the GSDC will be developed by the Chairperson of the GSDC and will be included in the overall biennial report to the APC General Assembly.
3 Membership

3.1 Members

Members of the GSDC shall be, in addition to the Chairperson appointed by the APC Executive Board:

- One (1) Vice-Chairperson, appointed by the Chairperson from among the nominations received from the APC members;
- A maximum of five (5) members, selected by the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson from among the nominations received from the APC members and from the next and the immediate past host nations of the Asian Para Games, who shall be invited to nominate at least one technical expert to serve in the Committee. Technical expertise in target sports to be identified by the Games and Sports Development Committee from time to time, should be included.

3.2 Term of office

Members of the GSDC shall normally serve from four (4) years corresponding to the term of office of the APC Executive Board members. Members may be re-appointed to serve for a next term, there are no limitations to the number of terms members can be re-appointed to the GSDC.

Membership to the GSDC may be terminated by the APC Executive Board following the annual review of the appointments and/or following the recommendation of a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the full GSDC, for reasons of not fulfilling his/her duties or any other serious breaches of APC rules and regulations.

Any individual member of the GSDC may resign at any time for personal reasons, subject only to the requirement that he/she informs the APC President in writing of such decision.

3.3 Vacancies

Vacancies in the GSDC occurring through resignation, death or any other reason shall be filled by appointment by the APC Executive Board, following nomination by the Chairperson of the GSDC.

4 Meeting

The Chairperson of the GSDC presides over all meetings of the Committee. If the Chairperson is absent due to unavoidable circumstances, the Vice-Chairperson or any member designated by the GSDC may preside over the meeting.

The Chairperson will convene meetings when appropriate, or upon request of the APC Executive Board and/or upon request of a majority of the members of the Games and Sport Development Committee. There shall be at least one meeting of the Games and Sport Development Committee each year.
The quorum shall be 50% of the members. All attending members have voting rights, including the Chairperson. Decisions shall be made by a simple majority of members present voting. When there is a tie, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

Where possible, thirty (30) days-notice of the meetings will be given to all members of the GSDC, but in exceptional situation the Games and Sport Development Committee may agree to meet at shorter notice. The agendas and meeting papers shall be circulated with the notice of the meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter.

5 Motions

5.1 To the GSDC
Motions for consideration by the Games and Sport Development Committee shall be submitted to the GSDC members as soon as possible and should not be less than two weeks before a meeting. The Games and Sport Development Committee may consider matters that are urgent and important at shorter notice.

5.2 To the APC General Assembly
The GSDC has the right to submit motions to the APC General Assembly through the APC Executive Board, and subject to compliance with the ‘Administrative Procedures to be followed prior to APC General Assemblies’.

The APC Executive Board may make further recommendations to the APC General Assembly on all motions submitted by the GSDC.
